Why are you being asked to complete this form?

We are a federal contractor or subcontractor required by law to provide equal employment opportunity to qualified people with disabilities. We are also required to measure our progress toward having at least 7% of our workforce be individuals with disabilities. To do this, we must ask contractors and employees if they have a disability or have ever had a disability. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we ask all of our employees to update their information at least every five years.

Identifying yourself as an individual with a disability is voluntary, and we hope that you will choose to do so. Your answer will be maintained confidentially and not be seen by selecting officials or anyone else involved in making personnel decisions. Completing this form will not negatively impact you in any way, regardless of whether you have self-identified in the past. For more information about this form or the equal employment obligations of federal contractors under Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) website at www.dol.gov/ofccp.

How do you know if you have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical condition. Disabilities include, but are not limited to:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Autism • Autoimmune disorder, for example, lupus, fibromyalgia, rheumatoid arthritis, or HIV/AIDS • Blind or low vision • Cancer • Cardiovascular or heart disease • Cellular disease • Cerebral palsy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deaf or hard of hearing • Depression or anxiety • Diabetes • Epilepsy • Gastrointestinal disorders, for example, Crohn's Disease, or irritable bowel syndrome • Intellectual disability 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Missing limbs or partially missing limbs • Nervous system condition for example, migraine headaches, Parkinson's disease, or Multiple sclerosis (MS) • Psychiatric condition, for example, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, PTSD, or major depression

5. Disclose Veteran status: Please select the option that best applies to you.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "INVITATION TO DISCLOSE VETERAN STATUS". At the top, there are fields for "Employee Name" and "Employee Number", both redacted with black bars. Below these are "Cancel" and "Submit" buttons. The main content area is divided into three sections:

- Definitions: Explains the scope of the law (Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974) and defines "disabled veteran", "recently separated veteran", "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran", and "armed forces service medal veteran".
- Self-Identification: Asks the user to identify their status. It includes a list of categories with checkboxes: "DISABLED VETERAN", "RECENTLY SEPARATED VETERAN" (with a "Military Discharge Date" field), "ACTIVE WARTIME OR CAMPAIGN BADGE (OTHER PROTECTED) VETERAN", and "ARMED FORCES SERVICE MEDAL VETERAN". Below this list, there are three radio button options: "I am a protected veteran, but I choose not to self-identify the classifications to which I belong." (indicated by an orange arrow), "I am NOT a protected veteran.", and "I am NOT a veteran." A "Your Name" field is also present.
- Reasonable Accommodation Notice: Provides information about accommodations and states that the information is voluntary and will not be used for adverse treatment.

At the bottom right of the form, there are "Cancel" and "Submit" buttons.
